Conversations with these Confidential Resources will not trigger a report to the Title IX Coordinator or otherwise be shared. The only exceptions are when there is clear and imminent danger that someone’s life is at risk, there is apparent or suspected abuse of a child or dependent adult, or there is a legal obligation to reveal such information under an enforceable court order.
Quasi-Confidential Resource

Conversations with a Quasi-Confidential Resource may remain confidential unless, there is a continuing threat of harm, or there is a legal obligation to reveal such information. Otherwise, Quasi-Confidential Resources will report incidents, but are not required to share any identifying information with the University’s Title IX Coordinator.

Women’s Center at UMBC

Advances gender equity and an inclusive campus climate through co-curricular programming, support services, and advocacy for marginalized individuals and communities and cultivates a survivor-responsive campus as a means to address sexual violence. Professional staff can meet with UMBC community members to provide support via appointments or walk-in as staff are available.

The Women’s Center also offers several discussion-based programs: a weekly discussion group for students; We Believe You: for survivors of sexual violence/power-based violence; Between Women: for women students who identify as LGBTQIA+ spectrum; Women of Color Coalition: for self-identified women of color students, faculty, and staff; and more.
